

Jacquiline Pimer is a trade lawyer specialising in international trade, regional integration, and investment matters. Jacqueline has over 12 years' experience in leading projects on the African continent on topics such as non-tariff barriers, trade in services, standards integration and most recently on the African Continental Free Trade Area. She is an advocate, a founder and Partner of Protrade Africa Consulting and currently working with the African Trade Policy Center as a trade expert supporting on the AfCFTA Strategies formulation for Member States. She holds a professional certificate in International Trade from Adelaide University, a Masters in International Law and Economics from the University of Berne – World Trade Institute and a Bachelor of Laws from the Makerere University.