

LATIFA SAID OMAR

Latifa Said is a trainer at Kenya School of Revenue Administration (KESRA). She holds a Master of Science in Mathematics (Biostatistics), a Bachelor of Science (Statistics) from Moi University, a Professional Certificate in International Trade from University of Adelaide and Certificate in Customs and Tax Administration from KESRA (formerly Kenya Revenue Authority Training Institute).

Prior to joining KESRA, Ms. Latifa Said worked at Customs department of Kenya Revenue Authority in various capacities as a declaration officer at Document Processing Centre (DPC) and IDF Unit, a Verification officer at the Eldoret international airport, KPE – Eldoret and Post Parcels Office- Eldoret.

Ms. Latifa Said has vast interest in Rules of Origin, Regional integration, International Trade, WCO Instruments on Trade Facilitation, Time Series Analysis, and Financial Statistics. She has written articles demystifying international trade for a better tomorrow. She is also a National Trainer on AfCFTA Rules of Origin. She is also a member of Kenya Red Cross Society, where she worked as a tally clerk during an Emergency Operation (EMOP) in Kwale.

Email address: sayyidlatifa@gmail.com